

Early Childhood/Lower School French Teacher

Supervisor: EC/Ls Division Directors

Start Date: August 18, 2021

Job Summary:

Canterbury School is seeking a dynamic, joyful, creative, and experienced French teacher to join our expert and dedicated team as a full-time member. This position is responsible for teaching multiple levels of elementary school French, ranging from Pre-K to 4th grade. Canterbury requires strong teaching skills as well as a thorough understanding of elementary school students and their development, a strong background in French, knowledge of best practices in World Language teaching, flexibility, and the ability to collaborate closely with members of the department, administration, colleagues, and parents.

Responsibilities include:

- Providing excellent instruction by fostering a nurturing, challenging, and supportive classroom environment that emphasizes mutual respect, advances students in their French language education, and inspires students toward a lifelong love of learning.
- The active pursuit of professional development in the areas of pedagogy, teaching techniques, and technology relevant to the field and subject in order to provide students with a learning experience of the highest quality.
- Knowledge about and experience with developmental, social, emotional and cognitive needs of the primary early grades
- Monitoring and reporting on the performance of students and coordinating with administration, teachers, and parents to address concerns and correct problems should they arise.
- Other general supervisory duties throughout the school day, as assigned by the division directors.
- Implementing lesson plans effectively
- Supervising students when in your care
- Interacting appropriately with parents
- Bachelor's Degree or higher (a degree in Education and/or subject field is preferred)
- Experience teaching French at this age level (Ages 3-10)
- Advanced proficiency in French, or higher
- Outstanding written skills for communication and documentation and excellent verbal communication and organizational skills
